REPORT:

The City of Yuma ("City") has long supported youth programs, including the local Boys and Girls Club. The City originally owned certain real property located at 1100 S. 13th Avenue (the "Property"), which has historically been used for the operation of a local Boys and Girls Club since 1972. In 2003 the City deeded the Property to The Salvation Army in an effort to further the operation and support of the Boys and Girls Club program.
