TITLE:

Lease Agreement: Amberly's Place, Inc.

SUMMARY RECOMMENDATION:

Authorize the City Administrator to renew a 12-month lease agreement with Amberly's Place, Inc. of the City property located at 812 S. Avenue A.

REPORT:

The City of Yuma (City) owns real property, which includes a retail building and parking facilities, at 812 S. Avenue A (City Property). The City Property is currently being leased to Amberly's Place (Amberly's Place). The Amberly's Place Thrift Shoppe retail facility is operated from the City Property and is also the location for the delivery of limited family advocacy services. Amberly's Place would like to renew its lease agreement for the City Property and continue to use the building for family advocacy/retail purposes in support of their mission to provide for the needs of abuse victims in Yuma County.

Under the proposed lease agreement, Amberly's Place will lease the City Property for a term of 12 months commencing on August 15, 2020. The lease amount for the City Property is $1,215.00 per month.

Renewing the lease agreement for the City Property to allow Amberly's Place to continue its existing operations is in the public interest of the City and represents a benefit to the public by generating rental revenue for the City and the creation of opportunity for the delivery of important community services.
